

St. Mary's First Nation Development of a Matrimonial Real Property Policy

What is a Matrimonial Home?

A matrimonial home is basically the family home that spouses live in together during their marriage or relationship.

The St. Mary's First Nation matrimonial real property law will lay out who the law applies to and how the matrimonial home will be divided when the marriage ends.